The President Group / Parliamentary diary

Today's Erasmus programme was a parliamentary session on CHILDREN'S RIGHTS .

Five countries discussed about different cases and shared their opinions.

We thought that it would be a boring day, but it was exciting. The trial had a president, Mr. Vilmon, who did a great job, he was a strong-minded judge.

Cases : - bullying

- divorced parents
- punishment
- threatened children
- the rights of disabled kids

There were arguments for and against.

Supporters of children's rights were sitting among the audience and they were sometimes shouting:

"WE ARE CHILDREN. WE HAVE RIGHTS"

Protester : Kata Timkó (She wasn't arrested XDD)

THE SUMMARY OF THE DAY :

It is not enough to know about the rights of children, but we must protect and support these rights all the time.

The best team ever (Ana, Mr Vilmon, Simge, Ricsárdka , Maja , Panna)
